“ Daddy, it's been a year and a month. It still feels like it was yesterday. I miss you so much. I want to be able to call and you pick up the phone. I'd give anything to hear your voice one more time. Some days I feel like I'm drowning remembering you and other days I swear it's like your right there. I don't think this will ever get easier. I love you daddy. Rest easy. 🤖❤️😭 ~Gabriello

“ Tim I will always have fond memories of you. You had a loving and kind heart. I remember when Michelle and you spent the night and Michelle fell and hit her head, you held her and cried because she cried and were comforting her. When we took you and her to the zoo and she was afraid to ride the elephant. You rode with her because she talked about riding it all the way to knoxville, but when she got there she didn't want to ride it because she was scared. You told her you would ride it with her and she was fine to do it as long as you were with her. I know Michelle is with you now and you had a joyous reunion.

“ Oh my favorite little Timbo, I have such wonderful memories and thoughts of you; from a very young child to a grown man(even willing to dress as Santa Clause to delight my children. You were always smiling with a big heart of gold, your energy could light up a dark room. You were so loved and will be missed greatly. Always in my heart, never forgotten until we meet again. This is not goodbye but see you soon! RIP Timbo. Love you forever and always Aunt Sharon

“ Oh what I would give to hear you say "you're still my boy ain't ya?" or "skeereet!" or "ya need err trim?"

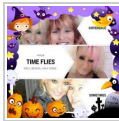

Dad you were taken way too soon. you were such a kind soul, who loved to make people laugh. especially your kids. you were a very hard worker, and you loved what you did. You never knew how much I loved you. So many precious memories flood my heart and soul.

Psalm 34:18 18The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit
