“ For Tim Mayes

God saw him getting tired, a cure not meant to be, so he put his arms around him, and whispered... "come with me" - Love James M. Burris

“ My mom was married to Tim for a brief time many years ago. I was in 4th grade and I'm 44 now. My mom went to Heaven in 2011. 2 years ago we was able to exchange numbers through Darlene. Tim was a good man. I loved the time that we spent with him. He treated me as his own when I was a little girl. I have loved wrestling because of him and passed it down to my son and grandson! Tears roll as I type this... because I've always had love for him. Early in my marriage, my husband and I ran into Tim and it was a great reunion. I've been married 25 years now. I can't wait for the next reunion in Heaven.

“ I met Tim through Ike Barber in the late 80's. We lost touch after that until we ran across each other a few years ago at the old EJ's. We both recognized each other right off and talked most of the evening just going on and on. Gonna miss you in this world my friend. Prayers and sympathy for the family. I'll try and stop by today

I growed up and helping Tim sometime around town him and Scooter Johnson set of rings and stuff. I live next door to Scooter and his parents on 3rd Ave. He was always a pleasure to be around always make you laugh and always had a helping hand for anyone. Godspeed my brother. Love you Tim you'll always be remembered. Tankard God be with you brother I know your heart is heavy with sadness but God has him in his hands right now. My sincere condolences to the family and friends who are morning a great loss. May God be with you in your time of need.
