“ I was truly blessed to have the privilege to be the ONLY one to call her momma!

When she was getting so bad in the last days before her passing. She would tell me that I was the prettiest flower in her garden. It melted my heart. I miss you, momma, I know I will see you again. I've been in heaven one sweet day

“ My dear sister! Thank you for 65 years of wonderful (most of the time) time togetherness. I remember when we used to fight (like brothers and sisters do). Mom would make us STOP and then hug and hold each other! It's funny now, but back then: not so much.

The memories of your intense horrific suffering from over four years of battling cancer hurts me to the core. BUT, knowing that you believe THE GOSPEL of Jesus' death, burial and resurrection (1 Corinthians 5: 1-4) gives me great joy!

The moment you passed from this sin filled world you were welcomed by our glorious REDEEMER, LORD JESUS CHRIST! And then joyfully reunited with our dear Father and Mother! NO more suffering, NO more pain, NO more problems ever to come upon you again and for ALL who BELIEVE in HIM!

Take note everyone who reads this: the most important decision you will ever make in this/your life is acceptance of the ONE who paid your sin debt! Ephesians 2: 8-9: For by GRACE are ye saved through FAITH; and that not of yourselves: it is the GIFT of GOD: (9) Not of works, lest any man should boast. It's not good bye dear sister, it's: see you all later...

Maranatha! Aramaic for: Come quickly JESUS!
