“ I have many fond memories with Dad & Tom as a young girl. I always looked forward to going to "Tom & Marlene's House" to play with the dogs and making trips to the "lake". He was a good man & father and will be missed. Please know that my thoughts & prayers are with you all.

“ My dad was a very special man. The Lord blessed us with and we loved him so much. He was the greatest father and friend. He was always there when someone needed help, not wanting anything in return. He loved Mom and us kids so much. And we loved him. He was a very special man. And I loved him very much. He will never be forgotten.

“ Can't say Tom without Marlene. Tom and Marlene just go together. Like all of Addies' offspring each is special in their own way. I would love to have seen that reunion when Addie greeted Tom and introduced him to Jesus. I am blessed to have had Tom as an uncle and thank God that HE provided Marlene to be his help-mate. Every time I see an antique car or an airplane I think of Tom....God is good all the time!

“ My prayers go out to you Mandy and your whole family. I am so sorry to hear about your loss. Please let your mother know My Prayers are with the whole family. I am thinking of everyone. Let me help in anyway possible. God is with you all. I know how much you will miss your pawpaw. My love to all. You spoke so highly of him. He will always be remembered in your heart just like your dad. May he RIP.
