“ Travis will be truly missed by everyone who knew him! I known him for 30+ years. My husband and Anthony were best friends in school. So, of course, we get our tires from them. They would change my brakes. Travis would always pick at me about my driving. It did seem like there was a stint of time I was always going to get my brakes changed. Travis would tell me if I would slow down they would last longer. One of the last times I saw him, something got said about my brakes. I told him, "hey! you should be proud of me. I got 94,000 miles on a set of factory brakes." He chuckled and shook his head and said I can't believe it. I'm going miss seeing him at the shop, and our on going joke about my brakes. Hugs and prayers to Nina, Anthony, Nancy, Hank, and the entire family.
