“ Thank you for being my uncle and growing up always treating me like one of your own I always had the best times with you and Jeannie. I never called you uncle or aunt because you two always seemed to young for that. Thanks for all the pony rides even though the pony always nipped you. I always remember the laughter tell Jeannie I miss her as does my mom (her sister) tell her we love her hug Amos, Chris and Chauncey for me I will never forget them Rest well Troy I wish I had spent more time visiting we get so busy in life when we should take more time to see those we love.
