“ Nanny I miss you so much. I cant believe it's been 4 years since I lost you. People try to tell me that it gets easier as time goes by, but it doesnt. The more time goes by the more and more I wish you was here with me everyday. You made everything easier/better. I look back at all of our pictures and smile because your goofy as hell you was always so happy. So loving. You made sure everyone knew how much you loved them. You always made sure we was okai. You was my best friend. Not just my nanny. You raised me. You tought me most of what I know and I wouldn't be the person I am if it wasnt for you. I know I've messed up. I've been making alot of mistakes but I'm trying. I'm doing better than I was and hey, you know alexa is pregnant right? She is going to have a little boy. And mom and dad are back in jail again... and I dont think they a lot e coming home any time soon..... matthew is doing ok but I dont know about damon. He doesnt talk to me... I really wish you was here right now. Even it was just for 5 minutes. it would be the best 5 minutes of my entire life just to hear your voice 1 more time. I swear it would. I love you nanny. I miss you so much!!!!

“ Aunt Trudy was always a selfless and loving woman that loved God and her family dearly. She will be missed and mourned by many in the family and I pray for grief and solitude for the family during this uncertain time.

Rest In Peace

“ Trudy was a good friend to me when I first moved to this area in 1958. I began school at Westside Elem. in the 8th grade, and she was the only person that made friends with me. Our lives went separate directions until recently we re-connected on FB. I am sorry we did not get to see each other again. I will remember and miss you, Trudy. My deepest sympathy to the family she loved so dearly.
