“ My deepest sympathy to my dear cousins as you mourn the loss of your husband, father, and grandfather. I feel so blessed to be able to visit with Van and all of you in 2018, it had been so very long since we had seen each other. May you all be blessed with fond memories of your loved one. I send prayers of healing and strength as you go thorough this time of sorrow and loss. Love, your cousin Janice

“ I want to give my condolences to Van's family and beautiful wife. I knew them through Arvil Wallace. They worked together at Bowman Freight and we attended several of the reunions. I also frequently talked with Van when he made UPS deliveries to Walmart, where I worked. He was a good, decent, loving and caring person. He was always doing for others. I pray God will give you solace as only He can. Sincerest Sympathy.

“ I loved Van so much. He was a wonderful and kind man. Every Christmas, he would make me potato candy and bring it to me with a great big smile. I love your family and I am praying for God to give you the peace that you need during this time.

I've got the ingredients to make his recipe. He would laugh if I said I was going to make it right now. Humidity and potato candy does not mix. I'm going to miss my papaw so much.
