“ I have many good memories of Vaughn. I loved him, he was a sweet, caring person, and a had great personality. We had many good times, could hang out at the Chow Time and talk for hours about his life and family. He loved his family, especially his mom. He appreciated how many times she helped him in tough situations, as well as his sister. We enjoyed many dates, Chow Time, Chow Now, Eating out, Drive-Ins, Chickamauga Dam, and just riding round. I know he will be missed by many. My sincerest sympathies, Linda (Shorty) Jackson Potts.
