“ David,

We wanted to be there this morning. Verneena meant the world to us. She sung at our wedding, and she taught David in 7th grade. Plus, we went to church and sung in the choir with her for many years.

We had septic tank problems this morning, and the mean were out fixing our problem.

Know our thoughts and prayers for with you.

Love, David and Dottie

“ I grew up in South Rossville Baptist Church. I loved Verneena. She was so special. For years I sat next to her in the choir and can still hear that beautiful voice in my ear! God bless you all.

“ What can I say? She was there in Church when I was a small child and she was teaching children's classes in SRBC. Then, in Jr. High, she taught me Social Studies which due to no cause of her but due to my poor or lack of studying I did past with a D-. That's the truth. And then back at Church she continued to teach me the love of the Lord. And she continued to follow every step that I have taken over the 70+ yrs of my life. She has been one of my personal mentors. And she has for years been considered a family member of the Campbell home.
