“ Although I never had the pleasure of meeting Veronica, her family holds a special place in my heart. Through working with her son at RMS and meeting her other children I know this was a loving tight-knit family. You are all in my prayers and I will support you in any way possible.

Prayers for the family. Veronica was a lovely lady and one of the strongest women I've ever met. She was so kind and never complained about anything. I wish her family prayers and support through this time. Veronica you will be missed dearly.

“ Rica!!! You have always been the sunshine in my life. You have always been my baby. I just cant imagine life without you in it. I know you are with Mom and Dad, your babies and the rest of our family. I know you are healed and pain free. I cant wait to see you again. I love you more than words could ever express and always will. I will miss you my beautiful sister.
