“ *Dear Rev Boo and family,
I look back over the last 25 years at time periods in life. around Ms. Vicki. I CAN SAY . I SEE HER SMILING AND BEING JESUS TO PEOPLE. .Ms Vicki and I recalled some memories together in Dec 2013 and shared some blessings. It was so special for the Lord to allow Ms. Vicki and I to share times we enjoyed !!!
It is so amazing to look at a lady of God like Ms Vicki and be able to say She lived out Proverb 31. That she looked well on the ways of her house hold and the house hold of God. Many will raise up to call her blessed. She left her finger prints or (touch) here for us all to see and to keep on seeing.!!
My prayers are with the family.!! 2 Corinthians 1:3-4

“ I sit here in shock, and sad, but with also happinss in my heart as I know Vicki is home with Jesus. I remember Sunday mornings at Gateway campus, setting up for church, and she prayed with me several times at the alter when I was hurting, and the Mothers Day in 2009 when my daughter was going in to have Bailey she had to have C-section and I was beyond my self with fear and Vicki prayed with me, and told me everything would be good, and she was right, God gave us a beautiful sweet girl.

My prayers are with Pastor Boo and his family. Vicki will be missed.

Cindy Parker.*
