

Mrs. Vicki Lynn Cash

October 21, 1947 - March 31, 2025

Vicki Lynn Paris Cash age 77, of High Point, Georgia went home to be with The Lord whom she loved to sing about. She passed away on Monday – March 31, 2025. She was born in Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia to the late Wilburn H. and Lucille V. Hixon Paris. She was a lifelong resident of the High Point community and a member of Lookout Baptist Church. On Sunday, the day before she passed away, she had given her testimony and sang about The Lord at church. In the past she had mentioned she would like to go to sleep and wake up in heaven. The Lord granted her that prayer, singing about Him one day and the next day being in His presence. Vicki loved her family and her church family, spending time with both is what she enjoyed the most. She was an avid Georgia Bulldawgs fan and enjoyed traveling, especially to the beach. She is survived by her sons: Darren (Laranda) Cash of Rock Spring, GA, Rick (Tammy) Cash of High Point, GA, brother: Billy (Veda) Paris of High Point, GA, grandchildren: Logan Cash, Riley Cash, Hunter Robertson, Hailey (Harrison) Moore, Holden Robertson, great-grandchildren: Bexley Cash, Stevie Lynn Moore, nieces: Sherry Strother, Terri Burke, nephews: Jeff Paris, Jerry Paris, several first cousins that were like her sisters. “ I met Vicki in 1987 when I went to work at Chatterm Drugs. We became friends very fast and soon we were Best Friends. I got to know a lot of her family members, her Daddy and Mother and her sons Darren and Rick. I loved all of them. I met a lot of her cousins and they were all so sweet. Vicki had a wonderful family. I will never forget all of the Wonderful times that Vicki and I had. My daughter got to know Vicki and she loved her too. One thing I loved about Vicki is that she would tell you what was on her mind, yet she said it in such a nice way. Vicki and I always loved each other and we never had one argument in all of the years that we knew each other. I will always love and miss Vicki. She was a wonderful person. Love Always, Claudette Mason.

“ A beautiful soul. I grew up with Vickie and called her my little sister. Vickie was a selfless person who helped so many people. She was such a faithful servant of God. Her faith has turned to sight. Your grandparents', Mom and Dad, and all others who have gone before. Will be so happy to see you. Rick and Darren and the rest of the family, God has promised to be with you Al loving us, strengthening us, giving us what we need to face each day. God will hold you close and see you thru because you are so precious to HIM. I love you all and praying for peace and comfort. Betty Burrell and Barry and Dale and Casey.
