“ I am so proud to claim Virginia a cousin. She was the most caring person I have ever known. She cared for so many people and put their happiness before her own. I have told her many times what a great person I think she was and being the kind person she was, she would just shrug it off. I know her sons,wives and families all feel the same way and I am so,so sorry for your loss. One of the last times I spoke with her I told her that her crown would be so full of jewels when she got to Heaven that it would weight her head down..I know many in Heaven are welcoming her today, my sister Joann being so happy she is there, they have lots of talking and catching up to do. May God Bless all of her family..Love you all !
