Vivian Ann Simerley Armour, age 80, of Ringgold, separated from her life of pain to her perfect life with Jesus Christ in heaven on Friday, February 4, 2022. She had persevered through a 19-year battle with Parkinson's disease, gracefully and without complaint. She was greeted in heaven by her parents, two brothers, a sister, and her great-grandson. Vivian was the fifth child of eleven, born to Henderson Bert Simerley and Lillie Mae (Nelson) Simerley. She was delivered on June 2, 1941 by Dr. Charles Stephenson at the family home on Wooten Road in Catoosa County, Georgia. There she met the love of her life (Douglas) Wayne Armour. They eloped in June, 1961 and have lived happily ever after for the past 60 years. She was a member of Indian Springs Church of God where she participated in the Women's Ministry and blessed the congregation with her beautiful voice.

She is preceded in death by her siblings, Frank Simerley, Troy Simerley and Sandra Odie; great-grandson, Kaden Miller.

Vivian is survived by her husband of 60 years, (Douglas) Wayne Armour; three children, Pamela Armour, Karen (John) Diliberto, Michael (Angela) Armour, all of Ringgold, Georgia; her loving always present fur-baby, Bandit. Her surviving siblings include, James Simerley of Ringgold, Caroline Akins of
