

Wanda "Darlene" Carver

July 29, 2021

Wanda "Darlene" Carver 68, of Ringgold went to be with The Lord on July 29, 2021 at a local hospital. After nearly two decades of defeating cancer, she ultimately succumbed to complications with medication. She has been living in the Ringgold area for the past 28 years, with her husband Bill Carver. They are members at Philadelphia Baptist Church in Boynton where she could always be found planning events such as Vacation Bible School, Christmas and Easter Programs, or singing in the choir. She loved working with kids; and she found a way to do that her whole life, working with the Bethel Bible Village, Head Start Pre-K program; and later a Bus Monitor for Catoosa County School Systems.

She is preceded in death by her parents Fred & JoAnn Shortridge.

Darlene is survived by her loving husband Bill "Bubba" Carver; children Jason (Jennifer) Hobbs, Sheena Hobbs; step children Michele (Bruce) Morris, Chad (Jennifer) Carver; one sister Shirley Stewart (Gary Goocey); grandchildren Noah Hobbs, Sarah Hobbs, Sumner Moulton, Sawyer Moulton; and several step grandchildren, and step great grandchildren.

A graveside service will be held at 3:00 p.m. at Simpson McBrien Cemetery in Chattanooga.

In lieu of flowers the family requests that donations be made to The
