“ Love ya Mom. Thinking about you today and every day. We went through a lot of good times and bad. But you were always in my corner. You always wished the best for us. Always said that life was what you made of it. You lived for your kids and always said : do as I say , not what I do ! Made us think and do for ourselves ! And reminded us that the decisions we make last a lifetime.. Your son.

“ Dear Mother,
It's been a month without you now. I've gotten through this far but, I'm not sure how..... It was all a crazy rat race, everyone was an emotional mess, the time home just flew right by me. It 'feels' as though it was all a dream..... I woke up and "poof "..... No more stories. No more conversations, our talks, of moon and stars, of Jesus, of Mars and Egypt, politics, animals and all your tales of Then. They always ended with I love you and I was always your Precious. It's hard when my phone rings and I know before I ever look at it, that it's not going to be you anymore. It's wonderful to know that you can finally rest. I find myself feeling selfish.....wanting you. You always taught me not to be selfish.....so, I will do my best for you. I have your dog. She is just as sweet as you always told me she was. She is a constant reminder of you and brings me a strange sense of comfort. I wish she too, could last forever.
I just want you to know how much I miss you.

My love forever.
Vicki.... Your Precious
