“Connie and David, I am so sorry for your loss. Connie you took such good care of your mon and I know that because of you she passed away peacefully. Wanda was a specisal person who was always so loving and kind to not only me but all of her family and friends. I loved her and wish we could have stayed in touch in the later years. Remeber she has not left you but has left you with so many memories. She is at peace now in the arms of Jesus and I kknow that you will see her again some day. I love you and will keep you in my prayers. Shirley
