

Warren Craig Kier

December 11, 1946 - February 23, 2021

Warren Craig Kier, 74, of Ringgold, passed away on Tuesday, February 23, 2021. He was born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin and has resided in Ringgold for the last 14 years. In his free time Warren enjoyed hunting and fishing. He is preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Marie Cleveland Kier, and brother, Robert Kier. Warren is survived by his wife of 46 years, Shirley Kier; children, Kristin (Mark) Monroe, Brian (Megahan) Kier; siblings, Karen (Dennis) Johnson, Robert (Jackie) Kier, Dianne (Jeff) Muellar, Joann (Juan) Batusa; and close friends, Robert and Maureen Derring. Online guest book at www.wilsonfuneralhome.com. Arrangements by W. L. Wilson & Sons Funeral Homes, Fort Oglethorpe, GA.

Tribute Wall

DM

“ Warren was my older brother. He is now in heaven with our brother Bob. They were both loved very much. We shared great memories of camping adventures with my parents and sister Karen. Warren served in the Air Force and came to visit us when stationed in Germany with my my ex husband and baby daughter Michelle at the time in the early 1970's. Will miss him very much and hopefully you are now is at peace. God bless you Warren, your sister Diane.
Love, you

Diane Mueller - February 26, 2021 at 07:25 PM

BD

“ Warren was Bob's best man at our wedding, his wife Shirley was maid of honor. We always had good times when we got together. He will always be remembered warmly in our hearts. We will miss him greatly as he was always there to help Bob with any projects that needed to be done on our home. Love you loads Bob and Mickey

Bob and Mickey Deering - February 26, 2021 at 05:14 PM