“ Cousins are one of life's greatest blessings. There were 11 of us and thanks to God 9 of us remain. Growing up, we were always together. We were more like siblings than cousins. You can tell a lot of crazy stories about our family but one thing remains constant, we love one another unconditionally. One of my heart warming memories of D was his laugh. It came from his heart and soul. Cuz, we are happy that you are whole and free from pain and in the presence of God and many family members. Until we meet again...

“ Let us remember Dee had one thing our grandmother taught us, unconditional love for family. His laugh. I have so many memories, good memories. He took me to elementary school for two years. He stopped by our home a lot all of my life. Our MamMaw. lived with us after Papa passed away. Dee always came by to see his MamMaw. He was there when we thought my Dad was dying. We always talked to each other on the phone. He would say right now. This will pass . He will always be missed.

“ He loved to hunt and fish.... we fished & hunted & camped together many a time... I even slept on the ground in a sleeping bag under his flatbed truck hunting with him... and he was asleep in the front seat... we had some good memories & good times.... Rest In Peace Brother.... your brother David Turner
