“ My wife, Becky, and I attended church with Wayne and Deedle for a number of years. I have always been so impressed with Wayne's gentle and distinctive Christian example. I remember Wednesday night dinners at church and being so welcomed by Wayne and Deedle. To learn of his homegoing is regretful and joyful at the same time. Regretful...that he has left us. Joyful...in that he has received his reward. I'm convinced that he would love to tell us all that he now sees...that Heaven is available for every person who has come to faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. He would tell us, "Yes friends, its true. Jesus is the way, the truth and the life."

God bless you, Deedle. We are close by...praying for you.

Wayne and Deedle became best friends with Herman and myself when we first moved back to Chickamauga in 1974 and remained so throughout the years. He was a brick for us when we lost Herman and will be sorely missed...

“Wayne was my Deacon at church for years and I sang in the choir with him. I could always count on him for a hug on Sunday’s. He and his wife Deedle (Doodle) would send me Christmas cards when I was growing up. Both such wonderful encouragers and prayer warriors. My heart goes out to Deedle and her family. Wayne was a sweetheart and had a good sense of humor. He will be missed. Rest well friend. It’s shoutin’ time in heaven!”
