“ I found an old Chevrolet hubcap in the woods today...It reminded me of how, for about 20 years, you tried to teach me the firing sequence of a Chevrolet. I still don't know it....lol.

You were a great & true friend to me...Even if I had not talked to you in a year, I would call up & you would answer, in that deep & gruff voice..."T-t-t-Tina"...I'd say "What are you doing??"... You always made me feel loved by answering, "Thinking of you!"... You also never hesitated to "set me straight" always offering your (much needed!!) "constructive criticism"...That may be what I loved about you the most.

So., today I'm "Thinking of you!"...Rest in peace my dear, old friend. You are greatly missed.

Love you & may God bless you Susan Hall

“ Susan, I can only imagine the emptiness you must feel, I myself am near tears as I feel the loss of a great friend, who was always there when I needed him. I could fill a book with tales of our days spent riding together, I pray for God to give you the strength to get through these hard times and know that Wendell loved you always!

“ So sorry Susan. Many of us lost a great sincere friend, Met Wendell when he was working at the Chevy dealership. He helped me round up parts when I was restoring my 68 Camaro. Then helped me and Van with parts and expertise when we restored my 58 panhead. Then he was pretty patient with me while I was painting on his 63 Chevy truck. Add to that to the many Harley rides and just hanging out. I am a better man now because our paths crossed on this earth but his spirit is still alive. See you on the other side my BROTHER

“ Susan, you know we can't put anything in words to describe our feelings towards you and Wendell. John and he were friends since school. They grew up together and remained friends until he was called to be with the Angels. There is no describing their friendship. We became friends when I met John and we all remained until this day. We will always be around if you ever need us. You know that already. John is very emotional and will miss his friend deeply. We loved him and all the stories they would talk about when they saw each other to each, talk talk, talk!!!! They had a good friend ship and it will be missed very much by John and I will miss him too. They talked about their younger years and I have heard many stories. Our prayers are with you and we wish you strength and peace for the future ahead. Love, John & Diane Barker.

“ Susan,

I can't tell you how sorry I am to hear about Wendell. I know this is a very hard time for you, but please know that my thoughts and prayers are with you as you go through this terrible loss. I always thought the world of Wendell, and even though he gave everyone the impression that he was the "tough guy", he was a big old teddy bear inside and he loved you unconditionally.

May God lift you up in his tender, loving arms and bring you comfort.

The "other" Susan.

“ Susan, Bill and I are so sorry to hear about Wendall. He was a wonderful friend to us and to Bill's family. He was always there for them and for us. I didn't know he was sick, and so sorry we didn't come to see him. Please let us know if there is anything we can do for you. Just hope you find peace in knowing that he is at rest. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Words cannot begin to express the loss that all of us feel at this time. I can say that I am a better person for having Wendall in my life and he will be dearly missed. I cannot remember one time that I was with him or talked with him that he didn't make me laugh or smile. To me, he was larger than life, and that is something I will always remember and cherish for the rest of my life. He was definitely one of God's soldiers in so many people's lives. He would give you the shirt off his back or his last cent if you needed it, not to mention all the children that got Christmas presents because of the Toy Run.

To his loving soulmate Susan, his family, and all his dear friends, I will pray that the pain of his passing gets easier each day. He is in a better place and will be watching over us all each and every day. I will miss you my dear dear friend, thank you for being a true friend. You will be truly missed by so many that love you.

“ Susan: You are in my thoughts and prayers. Although, I didn't formally meet and get acquainted with Wendell, I feel like I know him by the times that we have talked and shared stories about our families. He had to be a wonderful guy to have such a great wife. I can't imagine the sorrow and emptiness you must feel, but please know that your friends are thinking of you and here for your support. Please let me know if I can do anything for you. Love you, Sandra Williams
