“ Most of my favorite childhood memories involve the times spent with Gina and Terri at Gene and Diane's house. I loved being there, it was like having a 2nd daddy. Always felt welcomed, even when I invited myself over! And can't forget Gene giving us Hersey Bars for energy before softball and basketball games! Praying for you all. RIP Gene!! Love you!

“ I only knew Gene for about ten years, I met him through his cousin Freddy Rogers who is my soul mate for ten yrs. but he was always was nice to me in every way. He always had a kind word to say to me, I 'd answer phone when him and Freddy worked together and he'd say where's old red-eye that was his nickname for Freddy,also they use to get up early in the morning ,off on one of fishing trips, I guess it didn't matter if they didn't catch a fish because, lol I never saw a fish they brought home. I'm gonna miss you Gene

“ Too many memories to begin to list. Eugene has been my Brother in Law for most of my life. The one who taught me how to fish and clean 'em. Taught me how to swim too by throwing me in Rock Creek when I was about 5 years old. Earned the nickname "grumpy old fart" by me for many reasons. Could make me cry when scolding me and ALWAYS had my back!!! I'll never forget all the time we shared and all the memories we made together. I love Eugene and will miss him always! Teresa Palma
