“ Wib, I love you and will miss you! Miss you coming by the flea Market asking "what are you going to do with all this junk" driving by the house just riding around, one day I'm going start living like you just take off and go, it has been a honor to know you and the way you stopped yourself from aging was amazing never looked a day over 70, always bouncing around feeling young . Love You See You in Heaven, Patricia Wimpy

“ I have many great memories of Wib, talking over the years with him, my dad Vernon Capehart, my uncle Paul Capehart, my granny Lillie Capehart, her sister and Wib's mother-in-law Arrie. I last talked to him just after his 100th Birthday in Michigan. We drove to Hell (Michigan) and toured the place and had ice cream. I told my wife last night I need to call Wib, but this morning my cousin Johnny Capehart called and said he past away. I will miss him greatly, now he is back with Doris in heaven.

“ I always enjoyed curring his hair. We did more talking than we did cutting hair. Will miss him so much and our conversations over the years. Rip Wib
