“ I will greatly miss Uncle Wilburn. He and Aunt Edith were the first relatives my mom found when she started looking for her family in 1989. Soon after in Feb. 1990 Unsolved Mysteries flew us all out to California to be re-united. It was their first time on a plane and a very memorable trip. We had a lot of laughs about that trip for years to come. He was so funny and had such a likeable personality. I have not stayed in touch with him in the last 10 years or so but he will never be forgotten. My sympathies to all of his kid's, grandkids, and other family and friends. Uncle Wilburn, I will see you on the other side and be sure if you see that guy from California playing the guitar to hit him over the head with a wet possum!

“ Uncle Wilburn will be greatly missed. I loved him so much. He reminded me so much of my grandpa (his brother Lester Woods). They favored a lot! I seen him about a year ago, I wished I could have seen him a LOT more. I loved listening to him tell me about the past. He remembered my first car, 2nd car, my wedding, the birth of my son and etc.... We got to talk for a long time. It was GREAT! He is now in Heaven. Another Angel for sure! One day we will see him again. May God Bless his family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Love,
Sheila
