“ Prayers for all the family and his fiance! I found Bill years ago when needing my garage door repaired. He was just at my house several weeks ago with a new install. He took care of my Dad's repairs as well. He always took care of us and was always so sweet and you know he really cared about people, he was not there to take someone to the bank. He was honest and dependable and spoke highly of his family. If you called him, he could almost always make it that day! I am just shocked. We are going to miss him! RIP, Bill!
