“ My heart is heavy today I am so sorry for your loss. I am speechless and at loss for words. I keep asking myself why andy but I know God has better plans for him and needs him in heaven more than we need him here I guess. Ma the thought of knowing well meet again comfort you and know that I'm thinking of you and am praying for you. Andy was a dear sweet friend and I will miss him more than you know. With deepest sympathy.... Kim Gohley (Shannon green)

“ He was such a wonderful young man. Always cared about other people. Stayed to his self a lot but you could always still talk to him when you came in. I really loved his energy while he was growing up. Played well with the other children and made sure the other kids never felt left out. Thought the world of his other three brothers. May you my nephew RIP with your other family. We love and miss you! Aunt Polly
