“ Charles worked incredibly hard as a detective for the Gordon County Sheriff's Department. He was a pleasure to work with and never said a bad word about anyone. He really wanted to make a difference for the victims and citizens in our county.

I am certain he will be missed.

“ We were so blessed to be neighbors of Charles and Mabel for over 45 years. Their girls and our three children were good friends coming up and still to this day, even as they all have moved on in many directions. Charles was always ready to give a helping hand to anyone who had a need and touched many lives. We will miss him so very much. Bryan and I love you Mabel, Melody, Val, Kim and families. You are in our hearts and prayers as you grieve the loss of this dear man. So thankful that he is safe in the arms of Jesus tonight!

“ I always enjoyed Charles and Mable sitting behind us in church. The last time I saw him he was by himself. He did not feel well and had to leave early. He was such a sweet man. The family is in our prayers. Diane Ball
