“ My favorite memory of uncle Gene.
I have so many it's hard to decide which is my favorite! But, in remembering all the times we had together I would say one of the Halloween cookouts at your house in center post. Music was playing and you and Frances dancing for the first time. Seeing that big smile on both of your faces. Most people live a lifetime and never have what you had with Frances . My son Jesse still remembers to this day about having to kiss the kings ring blind folded! When he opened his eyes he saw Genes foot with the ring on his toe. And then there was the prayer meeting at my house when we had three preachers preaching, Frances dancing around shouting, and you got happy and jumped straight off the porch with a cast on your foot.
I will always remember you for as long as I live.
I'm so glad I got to come see you in December. I know you're in a better place than all of us! Rest in peace my precious Uncle Gene I love you!
