

Mr. William Logan Jones

October 24, 1923 - November 25, 2018

William Logan Jones, age 95, of Albany, Georgia moved into heaven on Sunday, November 25, 2018. He lived in Chickamauga, Georgia for 60 years before moving to Albany in 1994. Mr. Jones worked for the Tennessee Valley Authority for 36 years and served our country in the US Marine Corps during World War II. He spent his early childhood in Adel, Georgia where his father managed a large farm. Mr. Jones was a member of Elizabeth Lee Methodist Church in Chickamauga for many years and later was a member of Fort Oglethorpe Methodist Church. In Albany he was affiliated with Well Spring Revival Center. Mr. Jones loved being outdoors. He liked fishing and participating in coyote hunts near Albany. Even through his early nineties, he spent hours each day caring for his yard: mowing, pruning, and keeping it clear of debris. He is very much loved and adored by his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mr. Jones is preceded in death by his precious wife of 62 years, Caroline Virginia Johnston Jones, his father and mother, John Henderson and Lucile Logan Jones, and his brother, Ralph H. Jones, former sheriff of Walker County. He is survived by his daughter and son-in-law: Judy and John Lowry of Albany, Georgia, and his sons and daughters-in-law: Bill and Myra Jones of Chickamauga and Chris and Jenny Jones of Manassas, Virginia. He is also survived by eight grandchildren: Kim (Mark) Jones Mixer, Kevin (Shannon) Jones, Erin Lowry, Joanna (Jon) Lowry Gurr, Rebecca (Seth) Jones Middleton, Heather (Connor) Jones Jorde, Laura (Brandon) Jones Bocianski, and David Jones. He loved his ten great-grandchildren: Isabella, Paige, Cameron, Jake, Trip, Caleb, Nora, Reese, Charlie and Eleni. Mr. Jones is also survived by his two sisters: Wynell Riddle and Louise Clements, both of Chickamauga. The family would like to thank Annie Simms, Ruby Young and Amanda Young for their wonderful care for Mr. Jones over the last several years of his life. The family will receive friends from 10am - 11am on Tuesday, November 27th at the Wilson Funeral Home - J. Avery Bryan Chapel in Chickamauga, Georgia. Burial services will follow immediately afterwards at Rock Spring Cemetery. The family will also hold a memorial service early next year so that all family members will be able to attend and honor the life and legacy of William L. Jones. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that contributions be made to a city outreach ministry in Albany, GA called Jethro's Coffee Company. Donations can be made online at jethrocoffee.com/donate or mailed to City Connect, PO Box 71733, Albany, GA 31708. Arrangements by Wilson Funeral Homes – J. Avery Bryan Chapel. “ At 95, Bill was tired in body and mind. He wasn't happy on this earth anymore no matter where he laid his head because his body was tired and his soul yearned to be in Heaven with our Lord and the wife he so loved. He achieved his peace on Sunday morning when his body was made whole and he went home to Heaven, the only home that would truly make him happy and bring him peace. My youngest son Mark loved his stories and was inspired by his feisty nature. Mark, who has Cerebral Palsy, always felt awkward using a walker or a cane, but seeing Uncle Bill proudly sport his cane made Mark feel as if a big strong man like Bill needed help to ambulate, it was ok if he did as well. Prayers for the Jones family as Bill is laid beside his beloved wife Caroline tomorrow.

Rejoice in Heaven with Caroline, Sweet Uncle Bill <3

2 Timothy 4:6-8

6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.

8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
