“ Condo was my step Dad, who at first we didn't always get along. But once I grew up a little, matured and grew out of my brat phase, we became pretty close. I worked with Condo for a few years, on different jobs sites, as a painters laborer....lol Of course I got all the not fun jobs, but I credit him for my work ethic today! I am not afraid to get dirty and I have many extra skills I wouldn't have, if not for him. He taught me how to change a tire and so much more. He always told me he wanted me to be able to take care of myself and never have to depend on a man. I thank you for all my life lessons and love you with all my heart! I pray you rest easy, until we meet again. All my love and deepest sympathy to my step sisters, Tia
