“ I met Matt in Denver Colorado. He was my shoulder to lean on, and my best friend who knew what I was going through without many words spoken. I didn't know it at the time, but he was my guardian angel, who lets me know he's right there with me. Just one song away. Man, I miss you Turner!

“ I have no words to express the way feel right now. A world with out Chunk a bunkie seems so empty and sad. Matt was one of my dearest friends and I have so many memories with him that I can't even leave just one. If Matt was your friend you knew he always had your back, he'd go down for his friends no matter what this meant for him. He loved his friends and family dearly and I know he was so glad to be reunited with his momma! She was his world he he missed her so much. I know that Matt wouldn't want to see any of us hurting over his passing because he was never selfish and he always put others needs before his own. Matt Turner, Chunk a bunkie you will forever be loved and missed but I know we will meet again and until then my dear friend may you REST IN PEACE! Stephanie you are in my thoughts and prayers today and I wish I could be there for you today. Much love always stay strong as we all know you are! Love you
