“ Mr. Williams was, hands down, my best friend. When I met him he accepted me for what and who I was and never expected anything from me. My respect for him was so great I could never bring myself to call him "Pop" or Lee. Next to my dad he is the greatest man I ever knew. He loved the Lord and he loved his family and wasn't ashamed to talk about either. I worked for him at his shop and he taught me a lot. Not just about mechanics but also about trusting in a saviour that has an undying love for us. Mr. Williams trusted the Lord, loved the Lord, and loved to share the Lord. He loved it when people would come by the shop just to talk because somewhere through the conversation he was going to bring in Jesus. I will miss him greatly. ”

“ This is a sad day in our neighborhood, having lost a dear friend and neighbor of 36 years. Lee was a true friend, always willing to help us when we were having any kind of car trouble or needed anything in the way of yard work. You will be missed. My prayers are with Dorothy and Michelle and all the grandchildren. You guys are all in our thoughts and in our hearts today. Love, Gayla, Ricky, and Family

My condolences to the family. I did not know Mr. Williams, and I know this is not the best place to ask this question...but the obituary noted his mother's name as Nellie. My dad had an aunt by the name of Nellie Parker, and I do not recall her married name. If there is a family connection here you may email me at rsmith706@live.com. I just lost my 85 year old mother on Oct. 23rd. I understand the loss and pain you all are feeling. May God be with each of you, and give you comfort and peace. Sincerely, Renae Smith Crowe.
