“ I worked with Bill when I started at Lectrus and he helped train me in the Base department. He was a great guy who was always willing to share his knowledge and a hard worker. So sorry for your loss.

“ Papa Bill was like family from the first time we met. He never let us pay when we went out to dinner and always went out of his way to make everyone feel special. A true care giver. I can honestly say i never saw him without a smile on his face. He was truly a humanitarian and someone to emulate. I was always Christy to him and that somehow made me feel special. I will miss him deeply and share his memory forever.
