“ Wilma was my cousin, although she was actually my third cousin, but growing up we called her dad, Uncle Alex. Children of uncles are cousins.... At one time in our lives the Dicksons were among some of our closest kin along with the Gilberts and Templetons. Wilma was a sweet person, always smiled, gave me a hug and a kiss to the temple. Although separated by time and miles, we are still close in heart. Give my love to all the family... Leroy

“ Mimi will be missed terribly! We were blessed to have such a wonderful grandmother! She was a blessing to anyone she met and always had a smile on her face.
