“ A special thank you to Boynton Church of God and to Steve Smith for such an amazing memorial to Mother last night. Mother protected us kids by preplanning her funeral and we really appreciate her however it did not allow for enough time for a memorial service which we all needed so much. I know that no one really understood not being able to view Mother but it was very important to her that no one stand over her and stare at her. We had to honor that request. We, her kids, were however allowed to see her for a few minutes in private and I can promise you all that she looked more beautiful than I can ever recall her looking and she looked so at peace. Thanks to everyone for all of your support through this difficult time and thank you Boynton Church of God and Steve Smith for all of the prayers and outpouring of love. Thank you Candice Chambers, Amanda Alexander and Nicole Bowman for speaking about Mother and her life and thank you for all of the beautiful music and everyone who took part.
