“ I do not have words to bring your pain and suffering to an end, there is nothing I can do or say to help ease the pain you are going through, but I do know an awesome God and HE has the power to do do everything during your difficult days ahead. It will not be easy and it will not be soon, but only God can give you the strength and the courage and the comfort that only times like this can bring. Lean on Him all the way and let go and let God and know prayers and thoughts are with you all daily.

May God bring you peace and comfort during this time.

“ Let me tell you a story that has no reason or rhyme, a tale so far-fetched that it has no place in time. Most will not believe when reality burns all around, but here's a truth larger than life and utterly profound. We cry for ourselves with a loss for words, holding memories we dare not let fade, but there are colors that have no name painting portraits for this child today. Every question he ever asked are answered on the spot. More will come when these are done, but eternity is his lot. The Father himself held him in His arms and asked if the child could wait. "They will come," the child responded, "and it won't be too late."

Just a friend and neighbor. May God's peace hold you strong for a long time.

He loved to play with his brother Matthew, and was excited to show me all of his favorite toys when I was at his home. “ My sons grew up in the Valley, and attended the schools there. The staff at CVE & CVM love the children that they are responsible for. I know this tragedy has broken all their hearts, and they will never be the same. I don't think anyone in Chattanooga Valley and the surrounding areas will ever be the same again. So many lives have changed, especially two families. To the family of this precious child, please know that each day your baby was at CVE, he was loved and cherished. "When you saw one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you", I know that the Lord will carry you through this nightmare. My family and I are praying for God to give you the strength that you need to endure all that you must endure over these next days, weeks, and months to come, and my faith tells me that He will. I am so sorry for your loss. It is unimaginable the pain that you must be in.

Debbie Johnson - Chattanooga Valley - April 17, 2014 at 12:00 AM

“ Sliding Into Home

From Cory Craig, Luke and Chandler Craig

*God blessed two special parents, with a little precious boy.
He gave them so much happiness and brought them so much joy.
He wore the biggest smile, and he had such a big and loving heart.
To tell you who all was blessed by him, I don't know where to start.*

*He loved all his little playmates, and made so many friends.
He loved his little ball team, and was excited for each game to begin.
He had some special coaches, that took him right under their wing.
And they had no way of knowing, what a special blessing he would bring.*

*But God had some special plans for him, ones that couldn't be forseen.
He decided he needed little Zachary, to join up with his own Heavenly team.
And right now I can just see him, that little dark haired smiling boy.
He's in the batters stance right now, and He's filled with so much joy.*

*And he will swing that bat so easily, and that ball will fly into the air.
All the Angels are there gathered around, in his new home bright and fair.
And little Zachary will take off to base, running oh so fast and free.
And in Heaven he knows that he has won, there's no outs called there you see.*

*But he will scamper through all the bases, and the Angels all begin to cheer.
And he is smiling brightly, and he knows he will never ever have a fear.
And this little one is with Jesus now; he's safe and will never be* alone.

Little Zachary is the winner now, because he slid safely into his Eternal Home.

“ We are so very sorry for the loss of this precious little boy. My son is in Matthew's class, I had the pleasure of meeting both Zachary and his sweet Mother. Please know we are praying daily for your whole family. Sending much love and prayers to this precious family in their time of need. Zachary will live on forever in all the people who had a chance to see his beautiful little light shine. God Bless the whole Bryant family.

But for now, Im watching over mommy and daddy for you because they miss you so very much. When you talk to Jesus, ask him if he will help them through this. See you soon my angel. Love Nana “ Prayers go out to the Bryant family as they lay this precious little boy to rest. I saw a pic on fb where his mother is asking God why he took him and he was just a baby. Broke my heart and that is a question that no one will ever be able to answer. This is a tragedy that has touched our whole community. All we know is God had bigger plans for this precious boy and I pray that God holds his parents and siblings hands through this.
